

I believe the use of cellular telephones would be disruptive to those of us traveling who wish to rest or want the peace and quiet in order to read or just have quiet time.

If cellular phone use is allowed, it should be only in designated areas.